607 reasons why the FARC is on the international lists of terrorist groups

This document contains references to some of FARC's terrorist actions against civilians or civilian infrastructure since 2002.

This is only a sample, since many terrorist acts are not reported in the news or the perpetrator is unknown at the time of coverage.

All of them are either infractions of International Humanitarian Law (IHL), open violations of Human Rights, or crimes against the environment.

In memory of those who have lost their freedom and/or their lives at the hands of terrorists.
